Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight and Saturday; cooler tonight; moderate to brisk westerly winds.

WEDDINGS.

Mr. Ethelbert Tatspaugh, of this city, and Mrs. Inez Hamilton, of Washington, were married yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church, Rev. W. F. Watson officiating. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Grubb, of Washington. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Tatspaugh left for Washington, where they were entertained at a Thanksgiving dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Grubb at the Newby apartments. Following a wedding tour north Mr. and Mrs. Tatspaugh will return to Washington.

Miss Ada A. Maupin, of a few days ago, after the wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Maupin will live at 112 south Fayette street.

Bertha J. Hall, of this city, and Mr. Burton A. Johnson, of Washington, were married by Rev. Mr. Carpenter. The bride was attended by Miss Alice S. Hall, and the bridegroom by Mr. Joseph A. Johnson. A reception followed at the residence of Mr. Peter J. Hall, 424 north Peyton street. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home in Washington.

Miss Ethel S. Weaver and Nicholas S. Nich, both of Washington, were married yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church by Rev. W. F. Watson.

Miss Euphemia Lee Walton, second daughter of Mr. J. N. Walton, of Lexington, was married yesterday to Professor William Thomas Hodges, division superintendent of schools for Alexandria county. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. H. D. Grocker, of Jewel Station, on the Old Dominion Electric road, Rev. A. Stewart Gibson, of Aldie, officiating.

A WASHINGTON BEAUTY.

Miss Elsa Portner, of Washington, the debutante daughter of the late Robert W. Portner, is the youngest of four sisters, all noted for their beauty. With her mother and sister she has traveled for two years in Europe, returning to make her debut, the first week in December, at the Portner residence on New Hampshire avenue. Mrs. Portner has arranged a series of dances and luncheons for her daughter during January and a New Year's ball at Rauscher's. Miss Portner is tall and graceful. Her hair is dark and wavy and her features very handsome. All of the Portner girls are noted for their exquisite taste in dress. Robert Portner left each of his daughters an enormous fortune, making them among the richest young women in Washington. [New York American.]

A GREAT SHOW.

Standing room was at a premium last night at the New Opera House, the occasion being the first night's engagement of "The Beauty and the Beast." How a little strapping band of lions and a little troupe of acrobats, the immense audience was amazed at the little animals. Besides this one of the best harmonica players that has ever graced the stage is here. He is also a trick paper artist. And last but not least, is Jack Oliver, comedian, one of the best mimics on the stage today and the cleverest comedian seen in a long while. Matinee tomorrow afternoon.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: William Mankin, charged with assaulting and beating Luther Turner had his case continued. George Green, charged with assaulting and beating Ella Winston, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear. Scott Black, colored, charged with assaulting with a pistol, Alfred Brooks, colored, had his case continued. A white man, charged with chronic drunkenness, was held.

CASE CONTINUED.

Scott Black, colored, who was arrested Sunday night charged with shooting Alfred Brooks, colored, in the leg, was brought before the Police Court this morning.

MASONIC BANQUET.

Henry Lodge No. 57, A. F. & A. M., of this place, after conferring the third degree upon a candidate, Tuesday night, gave a splendid banquet in the room under the hall, which was attended not only by the members of the lodge, but by a number of members of sister lodges, and many ladies. The tables were weighted down with all the good things imaginable, while the flow of oratory was rapid and unrelenting. Everybody had a delightful time. [Fairfax Herald.]

HEAVY RAIN.

Rain began to fall about 8:30 o'clock last night and heavy showers followed at intervals until about one o'clock, when clearing weather followed. There was some thunder and lightning at times. The weather today has been clear and cool with a stiff northwest wind.

When a cold becomes settled in the system, it will take several days' treatment to cure it, and the best remedy to use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will cure quicker than any other, and also leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

FRATERNAL VISIT.

Prince William Lodge, of Manassas, will pay a fraternal visit to Potomac Lodge of this city tonight at which time the degree team of the local lodge will confer degrees upon candidates of the Manassas lodge. A special meeting of Potomac Lodge was held Wednesday night when all arrangements were made for the reception of the guests tonight.

CONCERT.

In addition to the regular soloists of St. Paul's church choir, the following well known singers will be heard at the concert next Tuesday evening: Mrs. Raymond Hulsh will sing the "Flower Song from Faust," Miss May Young, "For all Eternity," by Mascaroni; Mr. Kenneth W. Ogden, "Let me like a soldier die," from Maritana. Miss Lucy Graves, Miss Bertie Thompson, the soprano soloist of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Washington, and Mr. Arthur Jett, also of Washington, will sing.

LECTURE.

The following talent will take part in the musical programme to be rendered at the lecture to be given by Rev. Father Hendley, at the Lyceum Hall tonight: Mr. Richard Wirt, Mrs. Wm. Wools, Miss Ella Hill, Mr. E. Forrest Birrell, Miss Sallie Patterson, Miss Anna Desio and Mr. Edward Wasten, of Alexandria. A buffet luncheon will be served to a few invited guests by the daughters in the reading room after the lecture.

WILL PROBATED.

The will of the late Sarah J. Adams was admitted to probate in the Circuit Court for the city in vacation today. The testatrix leaves the house and lot No. 429 south Lee street to Eddie Biggs during his life, and at his death, they revert to J. Thomas Ballenger. Certain personal property is bequeathed to relatives and friends. Charles E. Biggs qualified as executor. The will is dated October 16, 1905.

LOST SEVENTY-FIVE DOLLARS.

Mrs. Elizabeth O'Neal, who conducts a boarding house at 1008 Duke street, reports the loss of $75 from a roller top desk. The money had been placed in a drawer in the desk and the receiptable locked. When Mrs. O'Neal looked for her money she found the desk locked as she left it, but the money gone.

SCHOOL CELEBRATION.

Readings, recitations and songs suitable to Thanksgiving Day were mingled with the routine work in Washington School, No. 4, today. An old-fashioned spelling match was also a source of much pleasure and profit to the pupils.

W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Howard M. Hoge, of Lincoln, state president of the Virginia Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will speak in the M. E. Church at Del Ray, Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock. There will be a collection for state work. Train will leave Royal street station at 7 o'clock.

Federation of Labor.

St. Louis, Nov. 25.—Talk of naming an opponent to Samuel Gompers as president of the American Federation of Labor has subsided. It is understood today, however, that Victor L. Berger or Max Hayes, the leading socialist, will vote in the negative when the labor leader's name is proposed, so as not to make his selection unanimous, satisfying themselves with the fight they have made to oust William Huber, of Indianapolis, from the vice presidency.

Rochester, N. Y.; Atlanta, Ga.; Washington, D. C., and Minneapolis, Minn., are bidding for the 1911 convention. The right of union locals and labor councils of cities to declare boycotts against industries, is denied by a ruling of the executive council of the federation which today ended the attempted boycott against the San Francisco Call by a solicitor's union. The convention approved the ruling.

An Echo of the Cripple Case.

London, Nov. 22.—That he was "wrongfully convicted" and the "victim of a horrible judicial" is the contention purported to have been printed by Dr. H. H. Crippen in a letter to the attorney by Lloyd's News. The letter, according to the newspaper, was furnished by Ethel Leneve, and was written to her a few minutes before the doctor was executed. It fills three columns.

WAR ON HAT PINS.

The police president of Berlin has issued a proclamation issued yesterday in the attention of the women of the city to the many recent reports of injuries inflicted by hatpins that project beyond the rims of women's hats.

The accidents have been especially frequent in street cars and usually men are the victims. The president calls upon the women either to cease using long pins or turn the points so that they will not be a constant menace to the traveling public. He adds that while he expects that the women will comply with his reasonable request he is prepared in the event that they do not, to adopt compulsory measures.

The December number of Every-body, which has been received from its publishers in New York, keeps up the always high standard of this magazine. In its leading article "Under the Prophet in Utah" Frank J. Cannon reveals the true political situation in that state and the need of reform. James Hopper describes just how it feels to fly in "On the back of the Dragon." In the fourth instalment of "It," the politics of business is considered, and "A World Afire" proves the inadequacy of our forestry service.

The fourth instalment of "The Women of Tomorrow" deals with the wasters of the sex. Five short stories and Rex Beach's serial give excellent fiction. "The Players" is well illustrated and "A Row of Books," "Under the Chestnut Tree," and "Everybody's Publishers" are among the departments.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. R. C. Powell is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Louis S. Scott, at Winslow, N. J.

Cadet Douglas McLean of the V. M. I. is at home, that institution, as heretofore stated, having furloughed the corps until January 4.

Mrs. Horace D. Ashton is quite sick at her home on Duke street. The Alexandria German Club will give its Thanksgiving dance, the first of the season, at Elks' Hall tonight. It is expected that a number of out-of-town guests will be in attendance.

Mr. Lewis C. Nalls and wife, left yesterday to visit relatives in Elmore, Ala.

LOCAL BRIVITIES.

Christmas one month off from today.

Lee school after a three day's suspension reopened today.

A meeting of the Alexandria Light Infantry will be held tonight.

The station Bondsman, was sold in New York last night for $11,000 to B. Wilson, of Portland, Oregon.

The members of the Masonic fraternity are invited to meet Most Worshipful G. W. Wright at the Schools of Instruction, at the Masonic Temple tonight.

Mount Vernon Council Daughters of America will meet tonight in the Hall at the Elks building at which time there will also be a music and literary entertainment.

According to a dispatch from Boston considerable anxiety is entertained for the safety of the three-masted schooner Cox and Green, which sailed from Baltimore November 8, coal laden for Bath, Me. Since the vessel sailed from Baltimore nothing has been heard of her, and her owners are much concerned for her safety. The Cox and Green is well known at this port.

J. Armstrong Drexel broke the record "going up" the other day and a man with a pair of eagle's wings hit the mark "going down." A clear case of commonsense and brains versus solid ivory. Now, friend, use your own commonsense. Read our big ad on this page. "The quality of our products hit the 'high places,' our prices always remain on the 'cheap level.' Get out of the 'cheap' class and join Mr. Drexel when he comes to Alexandria's Auth Stand and Market for those irresistibly delicious Auth Sausages, Puddings and Food Products.

FOOTBALL.

The C. A. C. Jrs. defeated the Wilmer A. C. yesterday by the score of 5 to 0. The feature of the game was the line plunging of Cox, Swan and Ramsey Cornell and Grimes featured for the losers. The line up:

A. C. Jrs. Positions. Wilmer A. C. Cox..... Left Half Back..... Cornell Swan..... Full Back..... Grimes Ramsey..... Right Half Back..... Cook Howard..... Quarter Back..... Qual Curtiss..... A Socialist's Threat.

New York, Nov. 25.—A threat that unless a pardon is granted to a socialist editor a "revolution of violence" will result during the present decade is contained in a letter sent today by Upton Sinclair, noted socialist author, to President Taft. Sinclair demands executive action in the case of Fred D. Warren, editor of the Appeal to Reason of Girard, Kans., whose sentence of six months in Leavenworth prison and fine of $1,500 for violating the postal regulations has just been affirmed by United States Circuit Court of Appeals of St. Paul. Warren's conviction is characterized by Sinclair as an "incredible travesty upon justice," and a flagrant case of the persecution of a man for his political opinion. "Warren's offense was sending postal cards through the mails offering a reward to anyone that would 'kidnap' a republican politician, former Gov. Taylor, of Kentucky, under indictment in Kentucky for the murder of Gov. Goebel, from Indiana," where he was then living. Warren's action followed the capture and transfer from Colorado to Idaho of William D. Haywood, Charles H. Moyer and George Pettibone accused of the murder of Frank Steunenberg.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The sailors of the American warships at Cherbourg fraternized with the French sailors yesterday treating them to dinner and festivities were arranged for them in other cities.

The preliminary plans of the Russell Sage Foundation, for the establishment of a model suburban city, were announced in New York yesterday.

Baron Loreburn, lord chancellor, declared in the British House of Lords yesterday that England would never get in complete accord with the United States until they got rid of the Irish difficulty.

With the formal reading of the indictment, the trial of L. C. Dulaney, the wealthy Mississippi planter charged with bribery in connection with the election of a United States senator, began in earnest yesterday at Yazoo City. Feeling that he had nothing to be thankful for, while all about him were people enjoying the Thanksgiving Day, Michael McGee, 26 years old, committed suicide in Central Park, New York, yesterday afternoon by shooting in the head. "I haven't anything to be thankful for on this day of Thanksgiving," passersby heard him mutter. With that he whipped out a revolver, and pressing the muzzle to his head, fired. He died instantly.

Mrs. Karl Gross, of New York, gave her four-year-old son Benjamin a cent for candy yesterday because it was Thanksgiving. While she was busy with the holiday dinner, the boy went across the street to a candy store. On the way back he was run down by a truck and killed. When the parents joined the crowd in the street, not knowing what had happened, Mrs. Gross fell fainting into her husband's arms as she saw the little body of her son with a stick of candy still grasped tightly in one hand. The police reserves were called out to protect the driver of the truck from the infuriated crowd.
